OUR PROJECTS

BACK TO SCHOOL PROJECT

JANUARY - FEBRUARY

For most children, 'back to school' means that summer vacation is over. But for children in countries ravaged by natural disaster and armed conflict, 'back to school' represents something else entirely: a return to normalcy, a safe environment, and the possibility of a future. These campaigns are intensive advocacy and communication efforts aimed at mobilizing governments, communities, donors and partner organizations. We create learning spaces and distribute pre-packaged kits such as stationery, uniforms and other early childhood development and recreation resources.

Target Audience: Primary & High school learners

BACK TO SCHOOL LEARNER SEMINAR

TERTIARY APPLICATIONS AND LEARNERSHIP DRIVE

MARCH-MAY

This project aims to encourage and help learners from rural or disadvantaged backgrounds and areas to apply to tertiary institutions and expose them to learnership programmes offered or available to them from different organizations.

Every year South Africa faces one of the biggest challenges when it comes to applications and registrations at tertiary institutions. Most institutions do their applications online which is a disadvantage for a learner who resides in a village/ rural areas, wrong course enrolments, missing persons because learners leave their homes without knowing where they are going to sleep, are some of the compelling reasons for this project.

STAR STRIKE (DANCE, MUSIC AND ART CLASSES)

FEBRUARY-DECEMBER

Star Strike is a project aimed at exposing youth to talents and enhancing the talents found amongst the youth. Creative expression has educational and psychological value for people of all ages but it is especially critical in early childhood education. Sadly, when schools are low on funding, arts and music programs are often the first subjects dropped hence the need to have this project running over and above school activities.

The plan is to work with experienced individuals who have talent in specific areas to help us train and mentor the youth.

REVISION CLASSES
